Mortal Sin can only be forgiven and absolved through sacramental confession. It is mortally sinful itself to receive the Body of Blood of Christ in a state of mortal sin. The three criteria for a sin to be mortal in nature (not all sin is) are: A) Grave matter, B) Full use of free will, and C) Full knowledge that what is done is sinful.

Don't let this Lent pass by without using this wonderful sacrament to assist you with true humility and the blessing of reconciliation that goes with it. It is a precept of the Church that every Catholic must go to Confession once a year. Unless one is the Blessed Virgin Mary or Jesus Christ comes back, one does sin and that sin must be addressed humbly. If you cannot make any of the mentioned times, I will happily make time to hear your confession.
